Welcome

Welcome to the Fall 2017 Edition of the Highland Memorial Park Newsletter. Please let us know if you have any suggestions.

New Grave Inheritance Laws

On July 1, 2016 the law that determines who inherits cemetery property was updated for the first time since the 1850's. The new law makes it clearer regarding who inherits the graves following the death of the owner listed on the Cemetery Deed.

First in line is the Spouse, followed by the Children and finally the Grandchildren of the last named owner to die. This is much simpler than the old law and makes it more convenient for families to pass graves to the heirs of the deceased owner or to sell unwanted graves.

In the past, many families have found it difficult to identify and contact all people whose signatures were necessary to complete a change of ownership. This left graves unused or unable to be resold. The new law allows for a majority of the children or grandchildren to make decisions about the ownership of the graves.

If you have tried to update the ownership of graves in the past, we encourage you to contact Highland Memorial Park to see if the new law will make it easier for your family.

Please remember that every ownership of graves is unique. You must contact the Highland Memorial Park office for details of your particular situation. Our telephone number is 262-786-6450 or contact us by email at mail@highlandmemorial.com.

Grave Decorations Beautify Highland Memorial Park

Highland Memorial Park offers two ways to arrange for grave decorations. You may purchase on a yearly basis or arrange for a long-term decoration account. This is a convenient way to be sure that grave decorations are placed, without having to contact us each year. You may set aside any amount to cover as few or many years of decorations. Please contact our office for more information or if you have questions.

When new families visit Highland Memorial Park, they remark about the large number of grave decorations. It is estimated that over 8,000 graves are decorated during each summer season, enhancing the tranquility of the cemetery for all visitors.

Highland Memorial Park has specific rules and regulations regarding the kinds of decorations that may be placed. These rules and regulations change with the seasons. During the summer it is required to use regulation bronze vases. We make four short exceptions for specific holidays. During the winter, regulation bronze vases must remain recessed for their protection and we recommend that decorations be on an easel at least 3 feet tall. This helps us avoid them if we need to prepare for a burial in that area.

While families may bring their own decorations, Highland Memorial Park offers both winter and summer decorations. We install and remove all decorations based on our decoration schedule. Purchasing grave decorations from Highland Memorial Park helps us hire summer workers to perform the extra tasks that are required during the summer season. Most of these workers are students and retirees, many who return for multiple years.
